

Partner with Mydent International in our “Container Direct” Program!

(Applies to Defend Brand or your private label)

Mydent International knows that the current economic climate affects how we all do business. The increased price of fuel, latex, cotton, plastic, other raw materials and transportation expenditures impacts how we buy and sell products. Yet in the face of these challenges, Mydent remains committed to providing the high quality products you've come to expect from our DEFEND brand or your private label branding at the rock-bottom prices we've always offered. Today, we've developed another way to continue providing your customers with the products that works better, lasts longer, costs less: The Mydent International Container Direct Program.
